Welcome

Welcome to the Department of Psychology's Student Documentation site

These pages are the main route to getting detailed information on your course and life in the department.

You can access a full list of every page by navigating the content list on the left hand menu but below are some quick links that students have requested.

Other places to find help and support:

- The Yorkshire VLE (which requires a University login) is the place to go for up-to-date information on the modules you are currently taking. This information is provided by the module organiser.
- If you have any queries which are not answered in the relevant Handbook, your Personal Supervisor may be able to help; email him or her to arrange a meeting.
- The University of York student help pages.
