

Service Level Agreement

(Version 14/11/2018)

Audio Visual Centre - University of York

1.1.1 Overview

This Service Level Agreement (SLA) is between the Audio Visual Centre and our Customers at the University of York (excluding third parties, e.g. York Conferences Ltd, Joint Venture Companies etc. where specific agreements will be in place). It agrees to provide the Audio Visual services scheduled in Section 1.2.

This SLA also covers performance, reliability and other topics pertinent to the provision of Audio Visual services; in particular it lists the key responsibilities of the Audio Visual Centre and our Customers.

1.1.2 General Clauses of SLA's

The purpose of this SLA is to establish a cooperative partnership between the Audio Visual Centre and our customers at the University of York by clarifying roles, expectations and providing mechanisms for resolving problems.

In cases of disaster due to an "Act of God", (i.e. lightning, electrical storm, hail, snow, sleet, flooding, etc.) any services that fail, or third party provided services (i.e. power, heating, access control, telephone & data networks, IT servers, external hired & contracted services); the Audio Visual Centre cannot be held responsible for loss of service. The Audio Visual Centre will however assist our Customers at the University of York in restoration of services as soon as possible under the constraints.

Force Majeure - the Audio Visual Centre will not be liable for any loss or damage caused to or suffered by the University of York as a direct or indirect result of the supply of services being prevented, restricted, hindered or delayed by reason of any circumstances outside of our control.

Audio Visual responsibilities

Audio Visual Centre shall:

- Comply with service standards as described in Section 1.2;
- Provide the services covered by this agreement and listed in Section 1.2:
- Provide operational support (including training as required) for the use of the services provided;
- Endeavour to provide our Customers with at least 48 hours' notice of scheduled, non-emergency outages (via appropriate media) due to maintenance. These outages are typically scheduled out-of-working hours but may, due to circumstances, need to be scheduled during working hours;
- Provide a method for our Customers to determine and report a problem with the Audio Visual equipment provided;

Our Customers Responsibilities

Our Customers Shall:

- Submit a Booking Form or request to the Audio Visual Centre and by agreement within the Audio Visual Centre procedures;

- Ensure that all users of the services agreed under the SLA are obliged to comply with the operational procedures and instructions (where applicable) including guidelines, statutory and insurance requirements for services and equipment;

1.1.3 Service, Guarantees, Warranties and Compensation for breach of SLA's

The Audio Visual Centre will use reasonable endeavours to provide the services in the SLA as detailed below for the provision of Audio Visual Equipment and services to our Customers.

All issues of complaint should be addressed to av@york.ac.uk with "Complaint" in the subject heading. In assessing your complaint, we will look at:

- Whether there has been a breach of the Service Level Agreement.
- Whether action was taken to resolve your complaint within a reasonable amount of time.
- Whether the complaint has been handled appropriately.

If we find we have failed to meet any of the above, we will advise on steps to take to rectify any outstanding issues, provide guidance on how the matter can be prevented in future situations and offer an apology where appropriate.

Complaints we will not consider:

- Disturbance/disruption due to alterations or building work.
- Relocation to alternative spaces due to required work or equipment issues.
- Loss of facility where a suitable alternative has been provided.
- Aesthetic issues which do not impede the use of the equipment or space.
- Problems outside of the control of the department.

We will acknowledge your complaint within 3 working days and explain what will happen next.

As part of the investigation we might contact you on the telephone or by email to talk through the situation and ask further questions to get the information we need.

Due to the nature of complaints we often need to speak to a number of colleagues in the University (or other relevant individuals or users), or carry out technical tests as part of our investigation. We will aim to give you a full response within 28 working days, however should the investigation into your complaint take longer than this; we will contact you with an updated time frame.
